¹ There are signs in an annotated handbook and in the language used in the Club's minutes, that Oscar Horwood, who was Assistant Hon. Secretary for 1912-1913, may have taken over the duties of H. Hawkes, both as Hon. Secretary and Treasurer during that year.

² Clement C. Arnold & Oscar Horwood almost certainly remained in their posts for the duration of the First World War although there were no formal meetings to appoint them.

³ H. "Harry" Parker became Acting Hon. Sec. during A.A. Harley's war-time postings.
