³ 1932/33. A.F. Mitchell arrived on the course a few minutes before the start, having worked through the night and only getting two hours sleep. The team had already been declared so he had to run as an individual, but his 15th place was rewarded by Captain Bert Footer giving the late comer his own team gold medal.

⁵ 1934/35. Arthur Penny completed a substantial part of the race with a fractured foot, otherwise a Belgrave clean sweep of the medals might have been achieved.

⁶ This race was run during wartime from Belgrave Hall, which had become one of the very few centres from which cross-country was held during difficult times. The race was run with only four to score and ‘A’ and ‘B’ teams ran. It was described in the newspapers as a ‘substitute’ for the Championship. so is not included in the following statistics.

1941 — 1945

No further races held during the Second World War period.

In the following stats, the year indicates the second year of the season, i.e. 22 = 1921/22. The stats are obviously affected by the fact that there are unknown runners in the early years.
